

Essay Template

It is often argued by some people that TOPIC NAME. This topic is often debated in popular media across the world. Not only because of the first factor/first advantage/ first cause and second factor/second advantage/second cause, but also because of the third factor/disadvantage/this solution. This essay will explore my point of view in detail with suitable examples.

There are multiple factors in this development. Firstly, one of the biggest causes/advantages/factors is money. As in many developed societies, this trend has gained significant attention. Take an example Brazil, a rising economy in South America, where media out-lets often discuss this issue. The above example has the potential to justify my opinion. Thus, the above discussion clearly supports my stance.

Secondly, another major cause/advantage/factor seems to be health. As many famous figures have often highlighted, this point of view on international platforms. For instance, in China, the mainstream media is gripped from this point of view. Hence, my stance indeed carries some worth.

Moreover, the major solution/disadvantage/factor seems to be time. As print media often discusses this issue in extreme detail.

To sum up, after the detailed analysis of the given topic that TOPIC NAME, I believe my stance seems fully justified. However, the above discussion clearly explains my point of view with is often a proven fact.